

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements.....	vii
Chapter 1: Introduction .....	1
1.1 Problems and issues.....	1
1.1.1 Exiles, Gentiles and Pauline Hermeneutics.....	2
1.1.2 Gentiles and grace .....	3
1.1.3 Continuity and discontinuity between Paul and Scripture.....	4
1.1.4 The hermeneutics of Ephesians and the undisputed Pauline letters	5
1.2 Methodology.....	6
1.2.1 Echoes of Scripture .....	7
1.2.2 The Hermeneutics of Faith.....	12
1.2.3 The Rhetoric of Citation .....	17
1.2.4 My own methodology.....	19
Chapter 2: ‘The Children of the Desolate Woman’: Isa. 54:1 in Gal. 4:27.....	23
2.1 Historical context and rhetorical situation .....	23
2.2 Isa. 54:1 in Gal. 4:27 .....	27
2.3 The function of the citation within Gal. 4:21–5:1 .....	28
2.4 The central problem.....	30
2.5 Isa. 54:1 in Second Temple Jewish interpretation .....	30
2.6 Proposed solutions.....	35
2.6.1 Paul’s interpretation is determined by his christological and apocalyptic precommitments.....	35
2.6.2 Paul’s interpretation can be explained by intertextual echoes from Isaiah.....	37
2.7 Gal. 4:27 within the hermeneutical framework of the letter.....	40
2.8 Gal. 4:27 and the story of Israel in Galatians.....	46
2.8.1 The story of Israel in Gal. 3:1–4:11.....	47
2.8.2 Paul’s story in Gal. 2:15-21 .....	55
2.9 ‘She is our mother’: Exiles and Gentiles in Gal. 4:27 .....	57
Chapter 3: ‘Come out from them’: The Scripture Catena in 2 Cor. 6:16-18...	61
3.1 Historical context and rhetorical situation .....	61
3.2 The citations.....	65
3.2.1 Lev. 26:11-12 and Ezek. 37:27 in 2 Cor. 6:16c.....	65