Article Processing Charges

In order to sustain the production of our fully-refereed open access journal, each article accepted for publication in CRPM is subject to an Article Processing Charge (APC) of €350.00. This fee is used to cover the costs of the peer-review process, professional typesetting and copyediting, as well as online hosting, long-term preservation, distribution to libraries and content aggregators worldwide, and extensive promotion to potential readers. Information regarding payment of these charges will be provided following acceptance for publication. Inquiries concerning APCs should be addressed to the CRPM Editorial Office (crpm.editorial@degruyter.com).

Waiver Policy

If the submitting author is affiliated with an organization which is listed as an Institutional Member, this membership covers the cost of the APC and the author is exempt of any further expenses. Moreover, APCs may be waived for authors who work for institutions in developing countries (countries classified by the World Bank as low-income or lower-middle-income). However, other authors who do not fulfill these criteria can also apply for a waiver or a discount during the submission process.

Funding Opportunities

Authors who are looking for funds to support the payment of APCs have a number of options to consider. For details visit our website at https://www.degruyter.com/cms/pages/funding-support.
