The independent academic publisher De Gruyter can look back at a company history of over 260 years. Today, the De Gruyter group publishes over 1,300 new titles each year in the humanities, STM and law, more than 650 subscription based or Open Access journals, and a variety of digital products. The company is headquartered in Berlin, with offices in Basel, Beijing, Boston and Munich.

Under its umbrella brand De Gruyter, the company runs the imprints of De Gruyter Akademie Forschung, Birkhäuser, De Gruyter Mouton, De Gruyter Open, De Gruyter Oldenbourg, and De Gruyter Saur.
DE GRUYTER MOUTON is a leading publisher in language sciences. It was established as Mouton & Co. in 1883 and has been part of De Gruyter since 1977. About 100 books are published every year under the De Gruyter Mouton imprint, in addition to over 40 journals.

DE GRUYTER SAUR is an internationally renowned publisher in the field of library and information sciences. Since the initial co-operation agreement with IFLA 40 years ago, the portfolio has grown significantly to cover publications from scholars and practitioners around the world. De Gruyter Saur has a particular reputation for high quality handbooks and monographs.

DE GRUYTER OLDENBOURG publishes in the fields of history, economics, informatics, and engineering (for the German-speaking market). Oldenbourg can look back at an over 150 year history, and has been part of the De Gruyter group since 2013. This imprint has a strong reputation for monographs and textbooks, and a close relationship with internationally distinguished research institutions such as the Federal Archives, the German Council on Foreign Relations, and the “Institut für Zeitgeschichte”.

DE GRUYTER OPEN one of the largest publishers of Open Access academic content, publishes in all disciplines. De Gruyter Open is home to more than 350 journals and over 100 books. The imprint’s programs have been endorsed by the international research community and some of the world’s top scientists, including Nobel laureates. De Gruyter Open’s mission is to make the very best in academic content freely available to scholars and lay readers alike.

DE GRUYTER AKADEMIE FORSCHUNG publishes titles, mainly editions and reference works and other fundamental research, originating from collaborations with German academies of sciences such as the Berlin-Brandenburg Academy of Sciences and Humanities, the Bavarian Academy of Sciences and Humanities, and the Austrian Academy of Sciences.

BIRKHÄUSER is one of the world’s leading publishers in the fields of architecture, design, and landscape architecture. The company, founded in Basel, Switzerland in 1879, publishes over 50 new titles each year, which are much sought after by designers and architects around the globe. Birkhäuser is the home of renowned authors such as Le Corbusier, Alvar Aalto, Herzog & de Meuron, and Peter Zumthor. Birkhäuser has been part of De Gruyter since 2012.
