

INDEX

- Acadia, outpost, 10; French settlements, 12; and New England, 13, 18; lost to French, 13
- Africa, trade of Atlantic seaboard with, 9
- Agrarian movement, new agricultural economy, 89, 111, 123, 126, 144; conflict with commercialism, chap. x, 125-126, 157, 209-210, 217, 237, 256, 258, 261-264, 269, 285-286, 316-317, 319-320, 338, 345-346; grievances, 151, 152; election of 1834, 291-292; and Mackenzie, 300
- Agreement of 1821, between North West and Hudson's Bay Companies, 201
- Agriculture, New France, 11; protection of, 104, 192, 237, 291, 345; crop failures, 107; Simcoe encourages, 116-117, 120; and French Canadians, 154; effect of immigration on, 208, 262; recovery, 345; see also Agrarian movement; Corn laws; Wheat trade
- Aix-la-Chapelle, Treaty of, 20
- Albany, 11, 18, 23, 65, 71; competition with Montreal, 17, 47, 48, 109; see also New York route
- Albion, U.C., opposition to radicals, 317
- Allan, William, 147, 266, 284
- Allen, Ethan and Ira, 104; Ethan, takes Ticonderoga and Crown Point, 62; captured, 63
- Allsopp, George, origin, 24; interest in wheat and flour, 28, in gulf fishery, 28; buys seignior, 34; attitude to Quebec Act, 57, 59, to laws, 75, to reform, 77-78; and Cochrane suits, 95; dismissal, 98; celebrates representative government, 124
- Althorp, John Charles, Viscount Althorp and third Earl Spencer, 246
- American Fur Company, 164
- American Revolution, chap. iii, 97, 103, 107, 109, 124; effect on St. Lawrence commercial system, 22, 70, 72, 74, 111, 183, 231, 235; attitude of London merchants to, 42, of Canadian merchants, 56-67; invasion of Canada, 61-67, 159; and Indians, 93; and Simcoe, 116
- Amherst, Jeffery, first Baron, 23
- Anderson, Capt. Anthony, 319
- Annexation movement, 364, 370, 381-382; manifesto, 349
- Anti-Corn Law League, 207, 346, 360
- Anti-Gallic Letters*, attack Gosford and French Canadians, 297, 327
- Antill, Edward, 63
- Appalachian Mountains, a geographical boundary, 3, 5, 7, 10, 18
- Arnold, Benedict, takes Ticonderoga and Crown Point, 62
- Arthur, Sir George, lieutenant-governor of Upper Canada (1838-1841), 332, 342
- Askin, John, origin, 24; in fur trade, 29, 73, 118; supply of troops, 121; Smith writes to, 124; Henry writes to, 146
- Assembly, promised in proclamation of 1763, 37; Murray does not call, 41; agitation for, 51, 52-53, 54-55, 97, 98-99, 112; granted in Constitutional Act, 114-115; provisions in Union Bill, 216; Lower Canada, first assembly, 124, 127-128; controversies between French Canadians and merchants, 154-157, 162, 194-195, 218-219, 225, 227, 228-229, 250, 255-256, 262, 265, 272-274, 277-278, 279, 288-289, 295, 297; representation of Eastern Townships, 219, 228, 257; Upper Canada, tariffs and finance, 129, 191, 192, 222, 246-247, 270, 272, 279-281, 299, 303, 313, 324, 334; St. Lawrence canals, 193; merchants in, 266; controversies between Tories and reformers, 286, 301-302; reform assembly of 1834, 293-299; controversy with Head, 303, 313; supports union, 324, 329, 334; United Canada, 337, 339, 378
- Assiniboia, and Selkirk settlement, 185
- Assiniboine river, 186
- Astor, John Jacob, and south-west trade, 108, 166, 167, 182-183, 202; acquires land in Lower Canada, 123; and Jay's Treaty, 140; in Montreal, 145; and American Fur Co., 164; and Pacific trade, 164, 182; warning against, 165; and South West Co., 168; agreement with Canadians, 183
- Astoria, 165, 176, 179, 182
- Atcheson, Nathaniel, 165, 170
- Athabaska, country, fur trade, 69, 73, 76, 91, 108, 109, 138, 384; Indians, 68, 69; pass, and David Thompson, 165
- Atlantic ocean, in economy of Atlantic seaboard, 3-4, 9; mercantilism, 83, 103, 235; Canadian commercial ineffectiveness, 106