Supplemental data

Supplementary figure 1  Flow cytometry analyses.

(A) The indirect test demonstrates the presence of circulating IgM antiplatelet antibodies. (B) With calcium replacement the population representing platelet clumps (R2), as opposed to single platelet population (R1), is markedly reduced and the MFI value showed negative result demonstrating the inhibition of IgM antiplatelet antibody binding with calcium replacement.