This work addresses changes in information structures and requirements faced by libraries and library science; changes that demand they redefine their positions, face new challenges and present definite perspectives in the form of research goals and pilot schemes.

This work contains 31 contributions by distinguished authors, shedding light on the following subjects: Library science between tradition, self-conception and public perception; Library science in the age of digital media; Information science - quo vadis?; Library science in the service of society; Library science in the service of practical librarianship and the promotion of culture.

For prices and more information about eBooks from K. G. Saur Verlag please contact your regional office.
This handbook provides thorough, up-to-date information on associations concerned with the fields of librarians and students alike. The reader can examine the presentations of the various practitioners, or go straight to the discussions at the conferences. The power and enormous diversity of this kind of interface and technology used. The guidelines are intended to apply to any type of catalogue, independently of the kind of interface and technology used.

The contributions to the conference held in Geneva in 2003, focus on the very latest approaches to ‘e-learning’. The reader will be able to track the development and consultation taking place throughout the different parts of the world, that will culminate in the creation of a truly international cataloguing code. This volume 28, contains information in English and Spanish on the use of cataloguing rules throughout Latin America and the Caribbean and provides interesting perspectives by the experts representing each of these countries in today's environment.

The entries contain the following details:

- A name, with an abbreviation and English translation where available.
- Address with telephone, Telex, fax, eMail and URL.
- Functionaries, members of staff.
- Languages, Year of foundation.
- Main field of interest and goals.
- Structure, finances.
- Summary of members (numbers, structure, types of membership).
- Membership conferences, congresses, publications.
- Activities (e.g. legislative proceedings or educational).

Volumes 116 and 117 of the series IFLA Publications will also be published in 2005. Additional volumes are available. Please request further information.

IFLA Cataloguing Principles: Steps towards an International Cataloguing Code 2
Report from the 2nd Meeting of Experts on an International Cataloguing Code, Buenos Aires, Argentina, 2004
IFLA Series on Bibliographic Control. Volume 28
2005. Hardback
ISBN 3-598-24274-7

Volume 26 of IFLA's Series on Bibliographic Control was the start of a process towards an International Cataloguing Code that will continue through 2010. Through the series of meetings represented by each volume, the reader will be able to track the development and consultation taking place throughout the different parts of the world, that will culminate in the creation of a truly international cataloguing code. This volume 28, contains information in English and Spanish on the use of cataloguing rules throughout Latin America and the Caribbean and provides interesting perspectives by the experts representing each of these countries in today's environment.