Profile / Kurzcharakteristik
The Journal of Perinatal Medicine is a truly international forum covering the entire field of perinatal medicine. It is an essential news source for all those obstetricians, neonatologists, perinatologists and allied health professionals who wish to keep abreast of progress in perinatal and related research. Ahead-of-print publishing ensures fastest possible knowledge transfer Review articles thoroughly examine theoretical and practical aspects of all subdisciplines Original contributions report on new results, particularly from the clinical and experimental areas – Short communications ensure rapid publication of new/preliminary results – Opinion papers provide statements on themes of topical interest – Letters to the editor provide information and different views on controversial topics – WAPM-Newsletters inform about the academic, organisational and political aims and objectives of the Association.
All contributions submitted for publication are critically reviewed by at least two renowned experts in the field in order to ensure the constant high quality of the journal.
