Instructions for Authors

Information for MPER authors

Conflict of interests

Manuscripts will not be sent to reviewers from the same institution as the authors. Authorship should be limited to those who have contributed substantially to the work. Guest authorship and ghostwriting is unacceptable and will be retracted if any detected cases will expose, with the academics being reported to their institutions. So, authors are encouraged to indicate their specific contributions to the published work.

Copyright transfer

Upon acceptance, the authors transfer copyright to Management and production Engineering Review journal. Upon acceptance for publication, all submitted materials become the permanent property of Management and production Engineering Review journal, the publisher of Management and production Engineering Review journal, and may not be published elsewhere without written permission from the management.

Disclaimer

The contents of the articles are ultimately the responsibility of the contributor. Accordingly, the Publisher and the Editorial Board accept no liability whatsoever for the consequences of any inaccurate of misleading data, opinion or statement.

The journal does not have article processing charges (APCs) nor article submission charges. Please submit your manuscripts to Management and Production Engineering Review via email to:
