Language Learning in Higher Education

Guidelines for contributors

Language Learning in Higher Education is concerned with all aspects of language education at tertiary level, including: learning, teaching and assessment; quality assurance; the role, status and management of language centres; the professional development of language centre staff; the exploitation of digital technologies; the development and implementation of university language policy. There are two issues of the journal each year, of approximately 250 pages each.

The journal publishes research articles (5000–7000 words) and activity reports (2000–3000 words) in the three official languages of CercleS (English, French and German).

Articles that report on empirical or experimental research should carry clear and explicit pedagogical implications, while those concerned with a practical dimension of language learning/teaching should include discussion of research-based principles. Articles on other areas of interest should include critical engagement with current discussion in the relevant literature. Submissions that the editors-in-chief judge worthy of serious consideration are peer-reviewed.

Activity reports should focus on an innovative activity carried out in a language centre and likely to be of interest to colleagues in other language centres. Submissions are reviewed by the editors-in-chief and the assistant editors.

Typescripts may be submitted at any time as e-mail attachments to the editors-in-chief, Liliana Szczuka-Dorna and Breffni O’Rourke (liliana.szczuka-dorna@put.poznan.pl; breffni.orourke@tcd.ie).
