EDITORIAL POLICY

Focus and Scope

European Review of Applied Sociology encourages and publishes qualitative and quantitative research in the fields of applied sociology.

Peer Review Process

European Review of Applied Sociology uses double-blind system for peer-review; both reviewers’ and authors’ identities remain anonymous. The editorial team is undertaking the first selection of articles, before being sent to 2 referees. All submitted manuscripts will be checked for plagiarism. The manuscripts containing plagiarism, including self-plagiarism, and dishonesty are rejected. The outcomes of the review process could be accepted without necessary reviewing, accepted with mandatory reviewing or rejected. The rejected articles will not be returned to the authors.

Publication Frequency

European Review of Applied Sociology is published twice a year, in May and October.

Open Access Policy

European Review of Applied Sociology provides immediate open access to its content on the principle that making research freely available to the public supports a greater global exchange of knowledge.
