Contents

Acknowledgments vii
James Parakilas

Introduction 1
James Parakilas

One 1700 to 1770s: The Need for the Piano 7
James Parakilas

Two Designing, Making, and Selling Pianos 26
Edwin M. Good; Cynthia Adams Hoover; Michael Chanan

Three 1770s to 1820s: The Piano Revolution in the Age of Revolutions 64
James Parakilas; Gretchen A. Wheelock

Four The Piano Lesson 110
James Parakilas; E. Douglas Bomberger; Martha Dennis Burns; Mark Tucker; Judith Tick; Marina Tsvetaeva, translated by Jane Costlow

Five 1820s to 1870s: The Piano Calls the Tune 150
James Parakilas; Charlotte N. Eyerman

Six The Concert and the Virtuoso 184
Stephen Zank; Richard Leppert
Seven 1870s to 1920s: The World’s the Limit 224
James Parakilas; Atsuko Hirai

Eight Hollywood’s Embattled Icon 262
Ivan Raykoff, with a Preview by Michael Chanan

Nine 1920s to 2000: New Voices from the Old Impersonator 288
James Parakilas; Mark Tucker; Michael Chanan

Afterword: Making the Piano Historical 321
James Parakilas

Notes 327
Recommended Readings 363
Contributors 369
Index 373

Illustration gallery follows page 180