ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

As indicated in the first volume, this edition was made possible by a grant of $200,000 from the New York Times Company to Princeton University. Since this initial subvention, its continuance has been assured by additional contributions from the New York Times Company; by grants of the Ford Foundation, the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, the J. Howard Pew Freedom Trust; and by other benefactions from the Charlotte Palmer Phillips Foundation, Time Inc., the Dyson Foundation, and from such loyal supporters of the enterprise as James Russell Wiggins, David K. E. Bruce, and B. Batmanghelidj. In common with other editions of historical documents, The Papers of Thomas Jefferson is a beneficiary of the good offices of the National Historical Publications and Records Commission, tendered in many useful forms through its officers and dedicated staff. For these and other indispensable aids generously given by librarians, archivists, scholars, and collectors of manuscripts, the Editors record their sincere gratitude.
