Contents

Preface ix
List of Contributors xiii
Brief Glossary xv

PART 1. INTRODUCTION 1

Chapter One
Overview 3
1.1 Introduction 4
1.2 Who Gets More Education? 5
1.3 Economic Outcomes and Education 9
1.4 What Can Policy Do? 12

Chapter Two
The United Kingdom Education System in a Comparative Context 13
K. Hansen and A. Vignoles
2.1 Introduction 13
2.2 Main Features of the UK Education System 13
2.3 How Well Is the System Doing? 23
2.4 The UK Education System and the Labour Market in an International Context 29
2.5 Conclusions 34

PART 2. WHO GETS MORE EDUCATION? 37

Chapter Three
School and Teacher Effectiveness 39
A. Chevalier, P. Dolton and R. Levacic
3.1 Introduction 39
3.2 Features of the UK Schooling System 39
CONTENTS

3.3 Incentives and Quasi-Markets 41
3.4 School and Teacher Effectiveness 45
3.5 The Impact of Resources 49
3.6 Selection and Peer Effects 53
3.7 Conclusions 55

CHAPTER FOUR
The Labour Market for Teachers 57
A. Chevalier and P. Dolton
4.1 Introduction 57
4.2 Patterns of Change in the Teacher Labour Market 58
4.3 Teacher Pay 62
4.4 Who Becomes a Teacher? 63
4.5 Feminization of Teacher Supply 65
4.6 Incentives and Teacher Rewards 66
4.7 Variations across Space and Subject 67
4.8 Non-Pecuniary Conditions 68
4.9 Conclusions 69

CHAPTER FIVE
Post-Compulsory Education and Qualification Attainment 71
D. Clark, G. Conlon and F. Galindo-Rueda
5.1 Introduction 71
5.2 Changing Patterns of Participation in Post-Compulsory Education 71
5.3 Staying On after the Compulsory School Leaving Age of 16 74
5.4 Broader Choices at 16 82
5.5 Post-16 Qualifications in the UK 86
5.6 Higher Education 90
5.7 Conclusions 95

CHAPTER SIX
Educational Inequality and Intergenerational Mobility 99
J. Blanden, P. Gregg and S. Machin
6.1 Introduction 99
6.2 Patterns of Change in Income, Education and Education Policy 100
6.3 Measurement and Data 103
6.4 Evidence on Changes in Intergenerational Mobility and Educational Inequality 106
6.5 Conclusions 113
CONTENTS

PART 3. ECONOMIC OUTCOMES AND EDUCATION

Chapter Seven

Measuring the Returns to Education
R. Blundell, L. Dearden and B. Sianesi

7.1 Introduction
7.2 Policy Relevance of the Returns to Education
7.3 Methodological Issues
7.4 Estimation Methods and Results
7.5 Limitations
7.6 Conclusions and Policy Discussion
7.7 Appendix: Comparing Private Rates of Return and Real Return on Debt and Equity

Chapter Eight

Employers’ Selection Decisions: the Role of Qualifications and Tests
A. Jenkins and A. Wolf

8.1 Introduction
8.2 Why Might Employers Use Qualifications for Selection Purposes?
8.3 Qualifications in the Labour Market
8.4 What Do Employers Think Qualifications Signal?
8.5 Changes Over Time
8.6 A Heterogeneous Labour Market
8.7 Conclusions

Chapter Nine

Evidence on the Balance of Supply and Demand for Qualified Workers
S. McIntosh

9.1 Introduction
9.2 Returns to Education
9.3 Overeducation and Undereducation
9.4 Skills Shortages
9.5 Does Supply Determine Demand?
9.6 The Impact of Skills Shortages
9.7 Summary and Conclusions
Chapter Ten

Economic Evaluation of Education Initiatives

C. Emmerson, S. McNally and C. Meghir

- 10.1 Introduction: the Evaluation Problem
- 10.2 The Evaluation Problem
- 10.3 Methods of Evaluation
- 10.4 General Equilibrium and Peer Effects
- 10.5 Evaluation in Practice. I. Excellence in Cities
- 10.6 A Summary of Results
- 10.7 Evaluation in Practice. II. Education Maintenance Allowance
- 10.8 Conclusions

Chapter Eleven

Education Policy and the Evidence

S. Machin and A. Vignoles

- 11.1 Introduction
- 11.2 Compulsory Schooling
- 11.3 Post-Compulsory Education
- 11.4 Education and the Labour Market
- 11.5 Closing Remarks

References