Contents

Preface v
The Illustrations ix

1 Introduction 1
Definition of subject - static and dynamic in culture - society - audiences - cross-fertilisation - opposition to progress - plan of work.

2 The Greek Achievement 9

3 Attica and its Population 35
Geography and resources - communication - the demes - the city - population - distribution of wealth; citizens, slaves, resident aliens - festivals - meeting places - house and family - women - symposia.

4 Education 58
Definition of subject - the sexes - elementary-schools - curriculum - achievement - technical education - higher education: the sophists and Socrates - Sophocles - Plato's Academy - Isokrates.

5 Religion 79

6 Political and Legal Life 101

7 Potters and Patrons 127
8 Architects, Sculptors, and Painters 146
Range of artists and patrons - Kimon's buildings - Pericles' buildings - Stoa of Zeus - change in the aim of art from the archaic through the classical period - technical treatises - personalities - criticism: Plato and Aristotle.

9 Poets and their Patrons 163
Poets, performers and audiences - inscribed poetry - spoken poetry - symposion poetry - victor odes - religious choral poetry - Timotheos - criticism: the new music - inspiration, genius, or technique - Homer.

10 Tragic Poets, Actors and Audiences 179

11 Comedy 203
Audiences and production - abuse - the poet's statement of his views - allusions to contemporaries - form of Old Comedy - Middle Comedy: form, content, and criticism - Menander.

12 Geographers, Doctors, and Historians 217
Introduction - publication and audiences - geographers - doctors - Plato and the doctors - Herodotus, doctors, and scientists - Homer and tragedy - programmes, execution - Thucydides and tragedy - Thucydides' purpose - influences on Thucydides - psychological terminology - types of argument in scientists and historians: origins - probability: signs, working models, experiments.

13 Mathematicians, Astronomers, and Philosophers 243

14 Conclusion 257
Athens as intellectual capital of the Greek world - meeting places - Athenian society and its divisions in theory and practice - patronage of sophists - patronage of political art - patronage of literature: liturgies - religious patronage - competitions in art and literature - social position of creative thinkers and artists - open enclaves for research - new ideas and opposition: politics, art, and literature - the archaic legacy, static and dynamic: religion - Homer - sentence-construction - form and content in Greek art - lyric poetry, drama, maps - working models - contrasted pairs: Being and Becoming - Physis and Nomos - Creation to History.

 Abbreviations 274
Notes 274
Bibliography 299
Indexes 304