Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction 3

1 Theorizing Professions 15

2 The Emergence of Self-Regulating Professions in Pre-Confederation Canada 37

3 Self-Regulating Professions Post-Confederation 76

4 Case Studies in Self-Regulation: Medicine, Dentistry, and Land Surveying 113

5 The Expansion and Alteration of Professional Self-Regulation, 1900–1930s 159

6 Contests over the Regulation of “Drugless Healers,” 1900–1930s 197

Conclusion 239

Notes 259

References 275

Index 307
This page intentionally left