All the illustrations come from the records of the Board of Trade of Metropolitan Toronto, with the exception of those on pages 2, 3, 7, 8, and 13 of the photo section, which are reproduced with permission of the Metropolitan Toronto Public Library, and on page 16, from the Convention and Tourist Bureau of Metropolitan Toronto.
The Board of Trade has played a notable part in the development of this city and, I suppose, the history of the one is inseparable from the history of the other, as of two friends who have grown up together. It is by the vigour and by the enterprise of her sons that Toronto holds so proud a place among the cities of our Commonwealth, and surely no single organization represents and expresses those qualities more faithfully than does the Board of Trade.
