Contents

Notes on Citation ix

Introduction: The Economics of Narrative 1
The Role of Economic Criticism 2
The Importance of the Publishing Context 13
Literature as Transaction 16
The Notion of Literary Value 23
Balzac, Dostoevsky, and Zola 35

1. Balzac: Narrative as Business 41
   “Phrase-Mongers” (Marchands de phrases) 45
   La Torpille: Experiments in Narrative Value 56
   Esther: The Prospectus, Production Model 63
   Lucien: Deconstructing the Prospectus 79
   Vautrin: Vautrin or Vaut rien—Who Decides? 89

   Reform, Experiment, and the Novel 102
   How to Write a Novel? 119
   The Novel as Prospectus 126
   The Rejection of Prospectus 153
   Auction: The Return of Commercial Value 156
   Speculation 165
3. Zola: The Business of Narrative 183

   The Commercialisation of the Book 184
   The New Economics of Fiction 191
   Zola as Promoter of Story and Book 200
   From Promoter to Managing Director 205
   La Curée: The Narrative of Business 214
   L’Argent: The Business of Narrative 227

Conclusion: Accounts 249

Appendix A: Serialisation of The Brothers Karamazov 255

Appendix B: The Thirty-Eight Retellings of the Murder of Fedor Karamazov 257

Notes 261

Acknowledgements 311

Index 313