Guidance of American Youth
Guidance of American Youth
AN EXPERIMENTAL STUDY

JOHN W. M. ROTHNEY
Professor of Education
University of Wisconsin

BERT A. ROENS
Director of Guidance
Arlington, Massachusetts

Foreword by James Bryant Conant

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS
Cambridge · Massachusetts · 1950
TO

CHESTER NOYES GREENOUGH
Late Professor of English at Harvard College, and its former Dean, who proposed the Study and, by a grant to the Harvard Graduate School of Education, made it possible for a period of five years

AND

RUTH HORBLOWER GREENOUGH
his wife, who has provided assistance and encouragement for the completion of the Study, and who has never wavered in her faith that youth, under guidance, will more fully realize its individual and social responsibilities.
STAFF OF THE STUDY

JOHN W. M. ROTHNEY
Director (half-time basis) 1936–1939; withdrew from active participation, but retained nominal directorship until November 1940

BERT A. ROENS
Counselor, January 1939 through August 1942; assumed active leadership in November 1940

GRACE McGLINCHEY
Counselor, September 1937 through December 1939

ELEANOR R. COLLINS
Counselor, September 1939 through August 1942

ELEANOR S. WEISS

HANFORD M. FOWLER
Statistical Analyst, 1943–1945

ANDREW R. BAGGLEY
Statistical Analyst, 1949

MARGARET M. MAHONEY
Clerk, 1936–1942

HARVARD ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR THE STUDY 1939–1942
Walter F. Deaeborn, Chairman · Henry W. Holmes · Warren C. Seyfert · Francis T. Spaulding · Robert Ulich