Contents

Acknowledgments xi

Introduction: What Is Poetic Attention? 1

PART I Attending to Objects

I Modes of Transitive Attention 25

II Contemplation: Attention’s Reach 53
  Ponge : Heaney : Stevens : Bishop : Mullen

III Desire: Attention’s Hunger 76

IV Recollection: Attending to the Departed Object 98
  Al-Khansâ’ : Hill : Celan : Cha : Carson

V Imagination: Attention’s Poiesis 125
  Coleridge : Wordsworth : Rilke : Burnside
PART II  Objectless Awareness

vi  Modes of Intransitive Attention  151

vii  Vigilance: States of Suspension  167
    Hölderlin : Mallarmé

viii  Resignation: Relinquishing the Object  191
    Rimbaud : Wright

ix  Idleness: Doldrums and Gardens of Time  212
    O’Hara : Ammons : Retallack

x  Boredom: End-Stopped Attention  237
    Bukowski : Gunn : Eliot

Coda: Toward a Practice of Poetic Attention  268

Notes  279
Bibliography  325
Permission Credits  345
Index  349