Tables

Table 1. Immigration to the United States, 1941–1995 2
Table 2. Changes in race and ethnicity of New York City population, 1960–1990 15
Table 3. Comparison of selected Latin American immigration populations, 1982–1989 16
Table 4. Employment in New York City, 1960–1990 18
Table 5. Voting turnout, 1990 congressional elections, by race and ethnicity 50
Table 6. Voting turnout, 1992 presidential elections, by race and ethnicity 51
Table 7. Citizenship rates, first-generation immigrants in Queens, 1990 (seven largest national groups) 56
Table 8. Median household income of U.S. Hispanics, 1991 58
Table 9. Educational attainment of U.S. Hispanics, aged 25 or older, 1991 60
Table 10. Party registration in Queens, 1991 81
Table 11. Increase in rate of Queens voter registration in presidential election years, as a factor of registrations in previous non-election year 82
Table 12. Comparison of U.S. immigration and emigration, 1901–1990 96
Table 13. Naturalization rate of 1977 immigrant cohort, selected countries of birth, as of 1989 97
Table 14. Percent distribution of persons naturalized, by duration of residence prior to naturalization and selected countries of birth, New York City, 1982–1989 98
Table 15. Self-identified race, first-generation immigrants, Queens, 1990 121
Table 17. Participation of Latin American immigrants in community organizations, New York State 131
Table 18. Sex ratios among legal immigrants in New York City, 1982–1989 170
Table 19. Marital status of first-generation immigrants in Queens, 1990 174
Table 20. Sex ratios of persons naturalized in New York City, 1982–1989 177
Table A.1. Taped interviews by national origin, first-generation immigrants, Queens 206
Table A.2. Taped interviews by gender, first-generation immigrants, Queens 207
Table A.3. Taped interviews by occupation, first-generation immigrants, Queens 207