Illustrations

Chinese opium den in nineteenth-century Singapore xvi
Boat Quay in the nineteenth century 26
Chinese laborer cutting dried gambier into cubes 64
Chinese gamblers 73
Handbill advertising the auction of the Singapore opium farm, 1847 75
Tan Hiok Nee 138

Maps

1. The gambier-producing areas of Singapore, Riau, and South Johor 8
2. India, Southeast Asia, and China 17

Tables

1. Trade of Bengal to the East Indies and China, 1814–1818 56
2. Singapore opium farm annual rent as a percentage of total revenue, 1820–1882 96
3. Singapore revenue farmers, 1845 and 1846 102
4. Singapore market prices for pepper and gambier, 1825–1909 165
viii | Illustrations

5. Arrests for opium smuggling, 1880–1883 171
6. Gambier exports from Singapore to the United States and United Kingdom, 1900–1905 187
7. Singapore opium farm annual rent as a percentage of total revenue, 1883–1914 188
8. Bankruptcies and liabilities in Singapore and the Straits Settlements, 1899–1909 189
9. Estimated monthly costs and sales of selected Malayan opium farms, 1903 201

Figures

1. Average annual opium price: Singapore, 1820–1901 59
2. Opium farm value compared with total revenue, Singapore, 1820–1860 72
3. Opium farm value compared with total revenue, Singapore, 1860–1914 72
5. Opium-farming syndicates, 1847–1879 119
6. Opium-farming syndicates, 1870–1885 151
7. Opium-farming syndicates, 1886–1909 192