CONTENTS

Introduction: Narratives of the Built Environment: Architecture, Ideology, and Skyscrapers 1

PART I
The Empire State Building: The Setback Skyscraper, the Great Depression, and American Modernism 11

1 Building, Money, and Power 13
2 Setback Skyscrapers and American Architectural Development 39
3 Capital Nightmares 51
4 The Politics of American Architecture in the 1930s 65

PART II
The Seagram Building: The Ascension of the International Style and a Somber Monument to Corporate Authority 87

5 Architecture Culture into the 1950s 89
6 Clients and Architect 97
7 Gangland’s Grip on Business 115
8 Modern Architecture and Corporate America in the 1950s 129