Contents

Preface xi

Part I: Fathers and Sons

1. The Foundation Narratives of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam 3
2. Adoption in the Near East: From Antiquity to the Rise of Islam 11
3. The Abolition of Adoption in Early Islam 24

Part II: From Sacred Legend to Sacred History

4. The Repudiation of the Beloved of the Messenger of God 35
5. The Battle of Mu’ta 72
6. The Martyrdom of the Beloved of the Messenger of God 94
7. Pretexts and Intertexts 120

Part III: Text and Interpretation

8. Paleography and Codicology: Bibliothèque Nationale de France 328a 155
9. Kalāla in Early Islamic Tradition 197
10. Conclusion 225
Appendix 1. The Opening lines of Q. 4:12b and 4:176 in English
Translations of the Qur’ân 235

Appendix 2. Deathbed Scenes and Inheritance Disputes:
A Literary Approach 243

Appendix 3. Inheritance Law: From the Ancient Near East to Early Islam 251

Notes 259

Bibliography 305

Citation Index 323

Subject Index 329

Acknowledgments 355
“When I think,” he said on reading or listening; “When I think of this phrase, continuing its journey through eternity, while I, perhaps, have only incompletely understood it. . . .”

— Michel Foucault, citing Pierre Janet, The Archaeology of Knowledge, 221